

Department of Health and Human Services 2018 Poverty Guidelines

| Persons in FamilyOr Households | 100% of Poverty | CSBG Eligible125% of Poverty | 150% of Poverty |
|--|------------------------|--|------------------------|
| 1  | $12,140               | $15,175                                 | $18,210               |
| 2  | $16,460               | $20,575                                 | $24,690               |
| 3  | $20,780               | $25,975                                 | $31,170               |
| 4  | $25,100               | $31,375                                 | $37,650               |
| 5  | $29,420               | $36,775                                 | $44,130               |
| 6  | $33,740               | $42,175                                 | $50,610               |
| 7  | $38,060               | $47,575                                 | $57,090               |
| 8  | $42,380               | $52,975                                 | $63,570               |
| *Families with more than 8 persons         | (100% add $4,320)     | (125% add $5,400)                       | (150% add $6,480)     |

The 2018 poverty guidelines are in effect as of January 13, 2018.
See also the Federal Register notice of the 2018 poverty guidelines, published January 18, 2018